5/ DELIVERY, STORAGE AND SHIPMENT OF EQUIPMENTS

A. Shipment dates refer to the time when it is estimated the Equipment will be ready for shipment from Ex Works and predicated on the prompt receipt by Seller of all information necessary to begin manufacture and continue without interruption.

Upon arrival of the Equipment at such storage location, the Equipment shall be deemed to have been delivered hereunder. Risk of loss to such Equipment shall then pass to Purchaser. In the event of such storage, all additional expenses thereby incurred by Seller, such as preparation for and placement into storage, handling, freight, storage, inspection, preservation, taxes and insurance, shall be paid by Purchaser within thirty (30) days of submission of Seller's invoices. Seller will, if requested by Purchaser, and upon receipt from the Purchaser of all necessary information, assist Purchaser in applying for any required export licenses for the Equipment ordered.

H. Liquidated damages for late delivery shall be in full and final satisfaction of the Seller obligation to deliver on time. Should there be a delay in reception of the down payment, if applicable, or formal purchase order, liquidated damages shall be calculated taking into consideration the equal amount of delay in receiving down payment and / or the formal order vs. order confirmation or Letter Of Intent, which does not represent a contractual commitment. Liquidated damages shall not be deducted from the total amount due but rather invoiced to the Seller.

8/ WARRANTY

A. Equipment

1 - Mechanical warranty

Seller warrants to the Purchaser of a new, undamaged Seller Equipment that such Equipment will, under normal and reasonable operations, be free from defects in material and workmanship.

This warranty shall be for a period of 12 months and shall run from the date of delivery of the Equipment as per 5-B) and/or the final invoice of the Equipment, provided that all payments have been made in accordance with the payment conditions.

As to all apparatus and accessories not manufactured by Seller which are part of the Equipment supplied by Seller, Seller's only obligation shall be to obtain for Purchaser such warranties or guarantees as are available from the vendors hereof over the longest period of time obtainable by Seller without payment by Seller of additional consideration therefore.

If during the applicable warranty period, any part of the Equipment is claimed to be defective and the claimed defect is confirmed by Seller inspection, Seller shall, at Seller's sole option and as Purchaser's sole remedy, repair or replace the defective Equipment or component part thereof without cost to the Purchaser other than freight and packaging charges to the point of purchase or manufacture.

Seller reserves the right to alter any part of the defective Equipment or component part thereof as it may deem necessary to meet its obligations hereunder.

Performance of Seller's obligations under this warranty is contingent upon the Purchaser giving notification in writing of the existence and nature of the defect no later than within ten (10) days after the discovery thereof together with reasonable proof of the date of purchase or delivery, and the return of the defective part(s), freight prepaid, to the licensed Seller dealer or agent from whom the Equipment was procured.

Seller shall not be liable under this warranty or otherwise for damages which may occur to the Equipment after delivery to the Purchaser or for defects caused by abuse or misuse of the Equipment, corrosion, fire, heat, improper handling, or the effects of normal wear and tear, negligence, or by a failure on the part of the Purchaser to provide reasonable and necessary maintenance which is expected to be the responsibility of the Purchaser. Furthermore this warranty is voided by alterations or by repairs by third parties.

2 - Performance warranty

Seller further warrants that the Equipment will perform in accordance with the performance characteristics, if any, of such specifications that may be made a part of a purchase agreement issued hereunder. If the specifications provide for a performance test or tests, the ability of the Equipment to meet this performance warranty shall be determined by the result of such test or tests. Upon the successful completion of such test or tests, all liability of Seller under this performance warranty shall terminate. If such performance test or tests are specified, but for reasons beyond the control of Seller, are not completed within four (4) months after the delivery of the Equipment or sixty (60) days after the Equipment is first put into operation, whichever shall first occur, the Equipment shall be conclusively deemed to have satisfied this performance warranty and all liability of Seller therefore shall terminate.

B. Services

Seller warrants that the recommendations, guidance and performance of its personnel will reflect competent professional knowledge and judgment in the industry of cryogenic storages and vehicles. In the event any portion of the services rendered to the Purchaser fails to comply with this warranty obligation and Seller is so notified in writing prior to six (6) months after the completion of such portion of the services, Seller will promptly re-perform, at its own expense, such portion of the services.

9/ RISK OF LOSS

A. Transfer of Ownership

Ownership of Equipment shall be transferred to Purchaser when the Equipment is brought onto the delivery point (modify as per the specific project conditions, e.g. FCA delivery). Provided that the Contract Price is paid in accordance with the provisions of this Contract, all Equipment shall be transferred to Purchaser free and clear of all liens, claims or encumbrances and Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Purchaser from and against any and all liens, claims or encumbrances against the Equipment or the site as a result of any act or omission of Seller, its subcontractors or suppliers, or their employees, officers or agents, and Seller agrees to promptly remove or cause to be released any such lien, claim or encumbrance; provided, however, that Purchaser is current in making all payments of the Contract Price to Seller under this Contract.

Together with the transfer of ownership of the Equipment, the responsibility for care and custody of the Equipment, together with the risk of loss or damage thereto, shall be transferred to Purchaser.

B. Loss or Damage to Property/Accident or Injury to Persons

To the extent not covered by insurance provided pursuant to this Contract, Purchaser shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller and its directors, officers, employees and agents from and against any and all suits, actions or administrative proceedings, claims, demands, losses, damages and costs and expenses of whatsoever nature including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, in respect of the death or injury of any person or loss or damage to any property, arising in connection with the execution of this Contract and by reason of the negligence of Purchaser or its directors, employees, officers or agents, except any injury, death or property damage caused by the gross negligence or willful acts or omissions of Seller, its subcontractors or suppliers, and their employees, officers or agents.

If any proceedings are brought or any claim is made against Seller which might subject Purchaser to liability under the present Article, Seller shall promptly give Purchaser notice thereof and Purchaser may at its own expense and name conduct such proceedings or claim and any negotiations for the settlement of any such proceedings or claim. If Purchaser fails to notify Seller within 30 (thirty) days after such notice that it intends to conduct any such proceedings or claim, then Seller shall be free to take such action as may be appropriate to protect its interests therein. Seller shall make no admission which may be prejudicial to the defense of any such proceedings or claim. Seller shall, at Purchaser's request, afford all reasonable assistance to Purchaser in conducting such proceedings or claim

10/ LIMITATION OF WARRANTIES AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

There are no express warranties other than those specified herein. Claims related to the loss or destruction of anything stored in the Equipment and any profits or revenues associated therewith, loss of use, lots of product claims of Purchaser's shall be considered as consequential damages and are expressly excluded from the coverage of this warranty. No claim against Seller or any kind whether or not based on negligence, strict liability, contract, warranty or any other theory of law, shall be greater in amount than the purchase price of that particular item of Equipment and/or that portion of services for which such claim is made.

11/ FORCE MAJEURE

Force Majeure shall mean any event beyond the reasonable control of either the Purchaser or Seller, as the case may be, and its subcontractors, suppliers or agents, such as, but not limited to, windstorm, hurricane, flood, fire, earthquake, war, whether declared or undeclared, terrorism or threats of terrorism, riot, civil commotion, strike, lockout, acts of God, epidemics, embargo, export or import restrictions, restraint of government, government priority, or compliance with any order or request (whether legal or illegal) of any governmental department, agency or officer; provided, however, that Force Majeure shall not include changes in market conditions or a shortage or unavailability of labour, materials or utilities, failure to pay money, conditions at the site or failure of subcontractors or suppliers, agents, and in the case of Seller, to perform, unless caused by circumstances that are themselves Force Majeure.

Should either party be prevented or delayed from performing its obligations under this Contract (other than payment obligations) due to an event of Force Majeure, then it shall inform the other party by E-mail or telefax within 14 (fourteen) days of the occurrence of such Force Majeure. The party that has given such notice shall be excused from the performance or punctual performance of its obligations under this Contract for so long as the relevant event of Force Majeure continues and to the extent that such party's performance is prevented or delayed. The party claiming relief under this Article shall notify the other party promptly after the end of the event of Force Majeure claimed by such party.

The party or parties affected by the event of Force Majeure shall use all reasonable efforts to mitigate the effect thereof upon its or their performance of this Contract and to fulfill its or their obligations. Seller shall be entitled to a Change for the reasonable costs incurred and adjustment to the Time Schedule as a result of the impacts of any event of Force Majeure.

If the performance of the contract is prevented or delayed for an aggregate of more than 90 (ninety) days by one or more events of Force Majeure, Seller shall have the right to terminate this Contract with immediate effect.

In case said Equipment is in such suit or proceeding held to constitute infringement and the use of said Equipment is enjoined, Seller shall, at its own expense and at its option, either

The foregoing states the entire liability of Seller for patent infringement and such entire liability shall in no event exceed twenty percent of the purchase price of the Equipment supplied hereunder, nor shall such liability include consequential damages of any kind including but not limited to those based upon loss of Purchaser's product and claims of Purchaser.

The provisions of this clause shall not apply to any Equipment specified by Purchaser or manufactured to Purchaser's design, nor shall it apply to systems or combinations in which Purchaser incorporates Equipment supplied hereunder. As to such Equipment, combinations or systems, Seller assumes no liability whatsoever for patent infringement and Purchaser undertakes to defend and indemnify Seller from and against any claim, expenses or proceedings resulting there-from.

15/ CHANGES

Any changes to the Work, whether proposed by Purchaser or Seller shall be subject to agreement between the parties and implemented following written modification to the Purchase Agreement except that Seller may implement changes in the Work without the approval of or compensation from Purchaser, if such changes shall not adversely affect its Seller's warranty, the technical soundness of the Work or the Purchase Agreement schedule. If any change is such as to cause an increase or decrease in the cost or time of performance or affect any other pertinent provisions of any Purchase Agreement issued hereunder an equitable adjustment will be made in the price, Purchase Agreement schedule, as well as any other terms and conditions as may be affected, including warranties. Seller will be under no obligations to proceed with a change unless or until a change order acceptable to both parties is signed by Purchaser.

Any change in design or Equipment required by any lawful authority of Purchaser's country, or any change in the laws, regulations and standards which affects any Purchase Agreement issued hereunder shall be deemed a change requested by Purchaser.

16/ USE OF EQUIPMENT AND SERVICES

The Equipment and services are intended for use only for the purposes for which they were expressly provided. With respect to any other use, Seller makes no representation or warranty and assumes no liability of any kind, including liability as to completeness, accuracy, usefulness, or non-infringing nature of the Equipment or services.

17/ TERMINATION

The terms and conditions contained herein entitled limitation of liability, patents, proprietary information and nondisclosure and all of the terms and conditions providing for limitation of or protection against liability shall apply notwithstanding any other provisions and shall survive termination, cancellation, or expiration of any purchase agreement governed by these terms and conditions.

In the event that any of the provisions, or portions, or applications thereof of these terms and conditions are held to be unenforceable or invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions, or portions, or applications thereof, shall not be affected thereby.
